Just there be - fore our eyes, the Lord's e - ter - nal The dis - ci - pline is hard; your hun - gers you must Do not just give what's due. His grace pro - vides for Re - wards are all of Him, though hard we've run to prize. The race will not be long, may ev - 'ry saint be guard. Throw off the ea - sy sin, and all the weights with - you. Do much more than the law; no lim - its does He win, For our a - bil - i - ty is graced. up - on us strong. E - ter - ni - ty is sure; the rest we can en - dure, But in. Take note of Christ's own race; for joy He bore dis - grace. Re - draw. If you will run to win, and have not run to sin, The free. Yet treasure rank and praise, for which we'll be a - mazed, May run the race to win, and dare not love to sin. mem - ber past the cross; and you'll not suf - fer loss.

Spir - it will en - due a pow - er to pur - sue.
yet be gained or lost, so, run - ner, count the cost!
