

The Discipline of God Is Strong

JIM ELLIFF

MITCH WHITE

The dis - ci - pline of God is strong to Do not lose heart when you're re - proved, no
Not all that's hard is dis - ci - pline, for Re - joice, my pil - grim in His ways, and make the sin - ning Christ - ian bend, Un - til af - fec - tion, mat - ter how ex - treme the flame. He turns the ground and we must train our minds to know That test - ing al - so do not doubt His pro - vi - dence. He's nev - er let a thoughts, and ways are each con - formed to God's own end. The burns the roots of suf - fo - ca - ting weeds of shame. We from His hand is His de - sign to make us grow. We spar - row fall with out di - vine in - tel - li - gence. Re self - ish child must not for - get the Fa - ther's love is must not faint, nor are we free to treat His love with quick - ly should dis - cern its source. If sin, re - pent - ance joice, His love works by de - sign to break our will - ful som - times found In trou - bles and hard cir - cum - stance, and out con - cern, When God takes love's se - ver - est course, for is the cure. If tri - als for o - be - di - ence, they stub - born - ness. No one could tame our rag - ing lusts, but in the rough un - ev - en ground, les - sons to be sound - ly learned,

on - ly make the Christ - ian sure,
God in His om - ni - po - tence.

The Discipline of God Is Strong

JIM ELLIFF

MITCH WHITE

The dis - ci - pline of God is strong to
Do not lose heart when you're re - proved, no
Not all that's hard is dis - ci - pline, for Re - joice, my pil - grim in His ways, and

make the sin - ning Christ - ian bend, Un - til af - fec - tion, mat - ter how ex - treme the flame. He turns the ground and
we must train our minds to know That test - ing al - so
do not doubt His pro - vi - dence. He's nev - er let a thoughts, and ways are each con - formed to God's own end. The

burns the roots of suf - fo - ca - ting weeds of shame. We
from His hand is His de - sign to make us grow. We
spar - row fall with out di - vine in - tel - li - gence. Re

self - ish child must not for - get the Fa - ther's love is
must not faint, nor are we free to treat His love with
quick - ly should dis - cern its source. If sin, re - pent - ance
joice, His love works by de - sign to break our will - ful

som - times found In trou - bles and hard cir - cum - stance, and
out con - cern, When God takes love's se - ver - est course, for
is the cure. If tri - als for o - be - di - ence, they
stub - born - ness. No one could tame our rag - ing lusts, but

in the rough un - ev - en ground,
les - sons to be sound - ly learned,
on - ly make the Christ - ian sure,
God in His om - ni - po - tence.